Market Square

The centre of Czarny Dunajec. In July 2020 Michał Szaflarski led the first walk in the footsteps of the Jews of Czarny Dunajec. In his stories, Jewish neighbours lived on these streets once again.

Former synagogue

The foundation calls the building at ul. Henryka Sienkiewicza 10 the last synagogue of Podhale and is working to save it. It was here, in front of the synagogue, during a walk in 2020, that a witness spoke of a crime that no one had described before.

Jewish cemetery, the memorial with 494 names and the lapidarium

A central memorial bearing 494 names and two white matzevot on mass graves. The foundation located and protected four mass graves here. A lapidarium with a menorah of remembrance stands on the ruins of the pre-burial house, and the paths are laid with sandstone.
